A CUTTING DOWN OF SCHOOL FUND.

How It Affects The Daytona City
School and Schools of Volusia County.

SOME FACTS AND SOME FIGURES.

The recent decision of the Florida Supreme Court is far-reaching in its effects; it not only hits the populous districts, the city schools and the high schools, but it is comprehensive and effects the rural districts to the remotest corners.

Superintendent Holloway is quoted as saying that it puts the schools back on a par with those of a decade ago.

There is already due the teachers of the State $167,756 under the 80 per cent. act, and the high school act. In addition, there is also due them the $50,000, which should have been appropriated by the Comptroller on the first of January, 1908, if at that time there had been money in the treasury for that purpose. The aggregate amount, therefore, due the schools on the first of July, 1908, was $227,756.

This large amount is lost to the schools, together with $165,000, which would have accrued by the first of July, 1909.

The law establishing a system of high schools was enacted in 1903, and the other acts coming under the decision of the court, were passed in 1905.

While it seems from this decision that the State is not able to appropriate any money to the schools, there may be made a county levy of seven mills for school purposes, and in addition to this, a levy of three mills may be assessed in the special tax school districts, and under this arrangement it is possible for the schools to be kept up to their present standard without the aid given them under Chapters 5381 and 5657, but the abolishment of the high school system is the most serious blow to public education in many years.

It may require a Constitutional amendment to remedy the objection pointed out in the decision handed down by the Supreme Court.

If this recourse is taken it will be necessary for the legislature to enact a law providing that each county shall maintain one high school to be supported entirely out of the county school funds. This plan, however, would be far inferior to the state system, since there would be no uniformity of standard in the operation of such schools.

A Daily News' representative hunted up Superintendent Wright of the Daytona High School to see what figure the handing down of the recent decision cut locally. Prof. Wright, while he deplored the court decision, seemed little perturbed. He said as it stands it would shorten the term of the Daytona school nearly a month, but he thinks the legislature at its present sitting will come to the rescue of the school and right the matter up and if possible go the old schedule of appropriations one better, as well as to give some wholesome legislation looking toward better schools.

The Daytona High School has a resource that would be used to augment the funds. It is this: A tuition fee of $4 per month would be charged for pu-

NOW DAYTONA BEACH, IF YOU PLEASE.

The Wires Are Now Flashing It
"Daytona Beach" Around
The World.

HOW TO REACH DAYTONA BEACH.

The uncertainty as to the fate of the Seventh Annual Florida Beach races has now been turned into an almost positive certainty that they will be given on the famous fast sand course as usual, the dates being March 22 to 25 next. It seems that the Florida East Coast railway and hotel system was not in favor of subscribing to the fund to perpetuate the races this winter, so it was left to the enterprising little city of Daytona to say whether the races should lapse this year or not. Daytona said no, and it said so most emphatically, providing the tournament should be given on Daytona Beach, where the fast world records have been made in recent years.

To that end Fred Dutton Stidham, a Brown college man and relative of Senator W. J. Morgan, was despatched to Daytona to co-operate with the committee that had wired Mr. Morgan to come to Daytona to take charge of the raising of funds for the seventh annual meet. Mr. Morgan could not leave New York, so he drafted Mr. Stidham, who soon arrived in Daytona and was met enthusiastically by the Florida East Coast Automobile association officials, and, under the pilotage of President Major Arthur B. Foster, Dr. E. L. Potter, Edward White, chairman of the committee; W. H. Peters, E. D. W. Rose and Colonel Bingham made such good progress that most of the $4000 asked for was soon assured by citizens of Daytona and winter residents thereof.

There will be radical changes in the conduct of the races in March. One of the great events will be a sweepstake prize stock car race, the cars being handicapped according to price and not engine power. This will give the public a good idea as to what is what at a certain price. The Sir Thomas Dewar $2,000 trophy for the international mile race will be given outright. There will be several thousand dollars in cash prizes hung up for fast cars, and as the Grand Prix race of France will not be held this year no special race will be put on for foreign cars which comply with the international rules unless a goodly entry is assured; therefore the races will be open to all cars no matter what the engine power may be.

There will be one special race, however, open to all competitors in past Vanderbilt cup races, for which a goodly cash prize will be offered. The stock car event will possibly go over a part beach and part road course, crossing two bridges, and it is thought that the average of 52.59 miles per hour made by the winning stock car at Savannah, will be beaten at Daytona, as it is thought that a speed of sixty miles an hour will easily be made by such a car as the Lancia.

One of the big races will be that for the Minneapolis trophy, which was won last year by the Fiat, the late Manuel Cedeno driving. This trophy must be won twice, so that if the Fiat wins it

Senator Tillman Goes After The President—Contempt of Senate,
Hits Below Belt, etc.

DENIES THE PRESIDENT'S CHARGES

(By United Press.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Arising to a question of personal privilege Senator Benjamin Tillman, of South Carolina, before an audience which packed the galleries today, addressed the Senate. He denied emphatically the charge of the President that he had used his official position for private benefit, or had made false statements to fellow members of Congress regarding Western land transactions.

Tillman in turn accused the President of personal malice, misrepresentation, falsification, cowardice, hitting below the belt, contempt of Senate and violation of the law in the use of the secret service.

He arraigned the President for permitting the so-called trust to absorb the Tennessee Coal and Iron Co.

Senator Tillman asked a searching investigation of his conduct, and invited a comparison of his (Tillman's) private life with that of the President, "or with the life of any other man."

For the first time in his career Tillman read his message, evidently appreciating the gravity of the occasion, and he dared not trust himself.

Prison Walls.

(By United Press.)

BETHUNE, France, Jan. 11.—Four robbers convicted of 18 murders, 118 robberies and other crimes, were guillotined this morning. Thousands struggled at the prison walls to witness the execution. The executions, which were the first legal beheadments in three years occasioned actual enthusiasm as a marked victory over President Fallieres' opposition to capital punishment.

Missing Michigan Minister Mur-derer Meandered To Iowa and Cuts Throat.

LITTLE DOUBT OF HIS IDENTITY.

(By United Press.)

KEOKUK, Iowa, Jan. 11.—A man undoubtedly supposed to be Rev. John M. Carmichael, the missing Michigan minister suspected of killing Gideon Browning at Battle Run church, near Adair, Michigan, attempted suicide today by cutting his throat at the house of Miranda Hughes at Carthage, Ill., this morning.

The sheriff found a letter in a pocket addressed to the sheriff of Port Huron, Mich., stating the man was Carmichael and asking the sheriff to come and get the body.

There is no doubt in the minds of the authorities but what the suicide is the man wanted.

In the letter the minister stated that he killed Browning, cutting up the body with a hatchet and burning it piece by piece in the stove; the letter stated that he changed his clothes, came to Chicago, changed again, and hurried to Carthage, Ill.

Duchess of Marlborough nee Condenly—Heart Failure.

CONSUELO A GREAT FAVORITE.

(By United Press.)

LONDON, Jan. 11.—The Duchess of Marlborough died this morning of heart failure. Only a few of the duchess's American relatives and friends were aware of any constitutional weakness of the heart, and the announcement of her death will be a distinctive shock.

The duchess, formerly Consuelo Vanderbilt, was a great favorite, indeed, a prime favorite, not only with the English nobility but she was loved by all classes, as she had a smile for every one.

She leaves a husband, the Duke of Marlborough, and three children, besides her New York family.

AUTO JUMPS SEA WALL WITHOUT SERIOUS MISHAP.

The Driver Goodnatured About It
And Laughed With Throng
Soon Gathered.

A little after noon yesterday, Mrs. Burns, who resides on Cedar and Palmetto, came out Magnolia to the post-office. Here she stopped her machine to go into the postoffice. As she approached the office the automobile took on life and headed for the Halifax, gaining momentum as it went, it made a neat jump of the seawall and landed right side up.

It is almost miraculous that it could do this, as there is a fringe of palmetto trees lying the seawall but it found a gap, and made as neat a leap as do tarpons when trying to extricate themselves from a hook.

Mrs. Burns is not just sure how it happened. It is probable that in shutting off power she pulled the clutch from the high power into the low power thinking she had cut off the force, threw on the brake, and stepped out for mail.

However it may have been the machine landed in about two feet of water, but sustained no material damage, and was easily fished out.

PRESIDENT ASKS FOR NEW SYSTEM.

Upon Recommendation of Commissioners Radical Changes In Penal Institution Asked.

1000-ACRE FARM TO BE USED.

(By United Press.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—In a vigorous message sent to Congress today President Roosevelt declares the condition of the penal and reformatory institutions of the National Capital to be about as bad as can be, and recommends immediate and generous legislation to correct the crying evils.

The message is based upon the report handed him by a commission consisting of Judge Wendell P. Stafford, John Joy Edson and Robert V. La Dow, the appointment of which was recommended by Congress, and which, after a thorough examination of the various institutions of the District of Columbia, made a tour of inspection of some of the principal cities of the country for the purpose of finding the most approved methods of caring for the wards of the public. The result of the Commission's labors is the recommendation of a radical change in the system now in vogue, and includes the conversion of the present jail into a house of detention; the establishment of a reformatory and work house, each upon a thousand acre farm, where the inmates can be employed in shops and upon agricultural work; and the adoption of the parole law and a probationary system.

The President comments upon the fact that the jail and work house now in use are frightfully overcrowded. "In most cases," he says, "two or three prisoners are confined in a single cell not large enough for one," and, in regard to the fact that all the prisoners of the jail are maintained in idleness, he says, "they belong, moreover, to a class of prisoners that specially need and dread to be put to work."

Free Delivery, Don't Want It.

A member of the city council is authority for the statement that at the meeting to be held tonight an amendment will be offered to the ordinance in regard to "Numbering of Buildings," which, if accepted and passed, as it undoubtedly will be, will place the ordinance in accordance with the postal laws.

The Missing Minister Again.

ROYAL WELCOME TO VISITORS.

(By United Press.)

All arrangements have been made for the institution of Daytona Lodge No. 1090, B. P. O. E., on Friday night, the 15th. Major J. D. C. Morris has received the required paraphernalia and also a communication from Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler H. S. The local members have done their part and the visiting Elks will be given a right royal welcome. They will be met at the trains, given an auto ride about our beautiful city, and when evening comes they will be greeted with a list of candidates hard to beat in Florida. A banquet will also be tendered the visiting Elks and the tender candidates who have just passed through the trying ordeal, and everything that can be done to alleviate the sufferings of the old Elks who have labored so hard and the young Elks who have just felt the pricking of the antlers for the first time will be done by those in charge.

The meeting will be held in Masonic hall at 7 o'clock and all Elks in good standing visiting in Daytona are invited to be present.

The Modern
Seven Wonders

Daytona's Incomparable Ocean Beach.
One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Picad. Pelucid Halifax River.
Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy verandas looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pican peck a fat mullet, and that fish hawk struggling upward with his thundering load he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.
Ridgewood Avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies, and the wide-spreading branches of the giant-trunked liveoaks extend their heavy arms across this magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elfish dapples, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

See the glistening leaf of the grand magnolia which nature has varnished as no artist's brush ever could; and the cabbage palms with their burdens of showy fruit and swaying palms; see the lovely holly with its exquisite berry; see the climbing vines running riot in the trees and the cryptogamous forms which gain a foothold on the great oaks and the stately palms, and surely you will join in the chorus and say that this is a world wonder for beauty.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.
No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottage. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"

It is not only the exterior of many of these homes that rivets attention; within they are models of convenience, and the finish and furnishing give evidence of the elegance and cultivation of those who worked it all out. Indeed it is the interior arrangement and the artistic furnishing and shading, more than the exterior appearance that give a surpassing charm to Daytona homes. This feature justly merits prominence as wonder number four.

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.
Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give to Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed but that such a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the little finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage. The entire city becomes a great park, with driveways intersecting, miles upon miles of driveways so good as to attract motorists from all over the continent.
And as for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite, where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? The pavement question stands with the street as one of the chief drawing cards. Till some unheard-of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.
Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or even callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and prickled ears.

For every visitor with a spare "goober" there is a bunny ready to come out and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gnaw into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile. Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round. You are reminded of Goldsmith's couplet where Smiling spring its earliest visit paid
And summer's lingering blossoms are delayed.

In one yard roses of variegated hues predominate, another household have a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane. Variety is the spice of life and here is where you find it.

The birds fit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.
As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes, which for beauty, prolificacy and all desirable qualities would truly astonish.

The Fastest Autos And The Finest Out.
The seventh world wonder, do you ask? Come, whether from Missouri or from Maine, from Kalamazoo or from Timbuktoo and you will be "shown." Here is where world's records for speed are broken with every recurring season. Autos the biggest, the fastest and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousand flowing wells. It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene.

Everything goes, from a 2-horsepower up to a 200-horsepower, and all degrees of speed from a canter to a two-mile-a-minute clip. You will probably catch the spirit and when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in your wallet only for coin for the auto and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

Old Laws.
There still exists in London a bylaw which forbids a cask of beer to be unloaded between certain hours, but no mention is made of casks containing any other liquor.
Lucerne has on its statute books a law which is not enforced. It prohibits its hats of more than eighteen inches in diameter, forbids the use of artificial flowers and imported feathers and orders that a license of 75 cents a year shall be paid for the right to wear ribbons or silk or gauze.

Sowing For Them.
As a countryman was sowing his ground two smart fellows were riding that way, and one of them called to him with an insolent air, "Well, honest fellow," said he, "it's your business to sow, but we reap the fruits of your labor," to which the countryman replied, "It's very like you may, for I am sowing hemp."—Catholic News.

Cab Wit.
The French have an expression about "cab wit"—that is, a Frenchman returning from a party and alone in his cab thinks of lots of clever things he might have said. There is a great deal of cab wit outside of France.—Aitchison Globe.

Teaching the Royal Salute.
Crossing the deck of the Kaiser Wilhelm II. royal yacht with a large mug of beer in his hand, one of the sailors was startled by the sudden appearance of his royal master. He made a most clumsy attempt to salute with his free hand, while his anxiety to prevent the beer spilling amused his majesty. "Look here," said the latter, "you didn't do that right. Let me show you how it ought to be done." Telling the man to fancy that he was the emperor, who was to be saluted, the Kaiser took the mug and retreated a few paces. Then, coming forward again, stopping opposite to the sailor, he held the mug to his lips, drained it, put it down on the deck and gave the salute with military precision. "That's the way to do it," he remarked to the astonished seaman. "Now go downstairs and tell them to fill the mug up again and give you one for yourself. Say it was I who drank it."

Brain and Muscle.
According to Miss Loane, the author of "From Their Point of View," more men are tramps and more women are miserable housewives if married or underpaid slaves if single because they cannot or will not use their brain power than because they are too lazy for hard bodily labor. The amount of purely untheoretical drudgery diminishes every year and the demand for intelligent workers increases.

The author had one woman patient, a worker among London poor, a chronic sufferer, who managed to keep house and children in far more perfect order than vigorous neighbors always scrubbing and scouring. She was once asked how she contrived to do this, and she replied:
"I makes my mind do three parts of it. It isn't so much what I does, but what I stops from having did."

Old Laws.
There still exists in London a bylaw which forbids a cask of beer to be unloaded between certain hours, but no mention is made of casks containing any other liquor.
